CALL/CAHELM
Security Risk in American Consulate General, Hamburg

1. CAHELM advised us on 2 November that Gertrud *LEONARD, German national and recently employed German language instructor in the American Consulate General in Hamburg, is a long-time close friend of Dr. Wilhelm SCHRAMMEN. We advised in HANS 5505, 3 November 1965, and EGG-956, 8 November 1965, that SCHRAMMEN is an active member of the Hamburg branch of the DFU, and a member of the executive committee of the Hamburg Peace Committee of the World Peace Movement. He reportedly travels frequently to East Berlin for consultations on DFU and peace-movement activities. SCHRAMMEN is a professor of music by profession.

2. We have advised the Consulate General security officer of the substance of the above. The security officer informed us that LEONARD was hired on the recommendation of the previous language instructor who retired on 1 October at the age of 70. She in turn had learned of LEONARD through a third party. The security officer has been cooperative, and although there is no derogatory information in the Consulate General files on LEONARD, he is now considering how to release her with a minimum of commotion.
